Make it a date with our calendar girls

PHUKET'S much-loved calendar girls will launch their 2011 Women's Will Power calendar with a gala 'Carnival of Colour' party at the Cape Sienna Hotel in Kamala on November 5.

The party will kick off at 6pm, just in time to watch the sun set over the Andaman Sea, and will continue well into the night.

The 1500 baht entry includes two complimentary drinks, 20 per cent off all other drinks, an all-you-can-eat buffet provided by Cape Sienna chef, Flavio, a floorshow featuring seven performers, three DJs, a fashion show, door prizes, raffles, and silent and live auctions.

Prizes include an all day sailing tour of the islands around Phuket, dinner and accommodation vouchers from four and five star hotels and restaurants, as well as a six star hotel stay in Seville, Spain.

The calendars will be on sale at the party and the girls will be only too happy to autograph them.

Proceeds from the party, and from the sale of the calendars, will be donated to the Phuket Shelter House for women and children in need.

The seven stunning calendar girls, each one a Phuket career professional, are pictured on the calendars modeling silk, leather and swimwear in exotic locations around the island.

Last year's calendar raised more than 120,000 baht for a local children's charity, Phuket

Sunshine Village, and the latest edition is set to be even bigger, better and braver.

Seven professional photographers donated their time to shoot the avant garde calendar pictures, ranging from the surreal to the sublime.

WWP director and calendar model Riz Tanaakarachod, the marketing and communications manager at the Cape Sienna Hotel, and Able Wanamakok, who both starred in last year's calendar are also featured in the latest edition, along with five new faces.

The 'newbies' include Manatsavinee 'Orn' Gestin, who runs Bit' in Restaurant Co; Parichart 'Kathy' Namchoo, the director of Senses Health and Beauty Clinique; Angkana 'Kwaung' Jamsrikaew, who is GM of the Stereolab Beach Club and Another World Cuisine; Panthita 'Fon'Tieamtat, a doctor at Patong Hospital; and Panatta 'Mam'Bunthanom, the creative director of Panatta Design Co and design consultant for JW Marriott Phuket.

This year's charity, the Phuket Shelter for Women and Children has been helping destitute women for more than twenty years under the Ministry of Health's department of Social Development and Welfare and Human Security.

Riz said the Women's Will Power Phuket Charity Group was all about empowering women.

"We want to show other women they can take charge of their lives and follow their dreams, and by donating profits from calendar sales to charity, we can help less fortunate women to live better lives."

If you can't make the party, calendars will be on sale at all Seng Ho bookshops until the end of January.

The calendars cost 299 baht each.
